Eleanor Roosevelt College

Developing Global Citizens

Ellie's Garden is a communal, student maintained garden between two of the Freshmen Residence Halls. It has recently expanded!

The Great Hall hosts a variety of events and is part of I-House.

ERC is the closest college to RIMAC Annex which houses Peet's Coffee, Home Plate, and much more!

HOME. The best part of being an ERC student? La Jolla Shores and beaches of course! Hope you enjoyed this tour of Eleanor Roosevelt College!

ERC's closest neighbors, The Village at Torrey Pines, is UCSD's Transfer Student Housing. The Village consists of 13 buildings, with incredible ocean views.

The Strand houses the Village Place and Market, as well as The Bistro.

Welcome to ERC! We begin our tour with I-House, an on-campus housing community dedicated to international and intercultural awareness. Residents include international students from over 30 different countries, and undergraduates from all six colleges.

This tour brought to you by Out-of-State and International Student Outreach. Visit <http://nonresidentinfo.ucsd.edu/> for more info

The ERC Apartments are for continuing students who wish to live on campus beyond their first year. Mostly second year students live in the apartments, but UCSD guarantees on campus housing for 4 years! It is conveniently located next to Café V, Pangea Parking Structure, and other resources/amenities. Across from the Freshmen Halls and on the ERC Green, you'll never run out of things to do!

Here's a look inside one of the Freshmen Residence Halls. Each hall is unique, with a communal lounge and kitchen decorated specifically for each building. Each suite has a common area, community bathroom, and 6-7 bedrooms. Every dorm and apartment comes fully furnished! ERC also has its very own laundry room!

Welcome to Café Ventanas! Eleanor Roosevelt's premier dining hall. Café V has choices for any appetite including a salad bar, grill, sandwich making, daily specials, and sushi. It accommodates vegetarian, vegan, gluten free, and lactose intolerant. Also, make sure to visit, The Bistro, the new restaurant at the Strand!
